Stage 1 Application Form

Māori Digital Technology Development Fund.

The Māori Digital Technology Development Fund is a contestable fund established to support initiatives that will create high value jobs and opportunities for Māori in digital technologies.

This Stage 1 application form invites applicants to suggest initiatives that can satisfy the Fundamental Criteria below. The Stage 1 application process involves:

- completing this application form
- a short video in support of the application (3 minute maximum length).

Fundamental Criteria

Stage 1 applications will be assessed based on their answers to the questions on page 2 but each successful application must demonstrate that the initiative will:

1. create high value jobs and opportunities that advance Māori in digital technologies; and
2. align to one or more of the three funding priorities; and
3. achieve one or more of the funding outcomes relevant to the funding priority the applicant is targeting.

Those are the "Fundamental Criteria". The diagram below illustrates those criteria.
