Waitangi Tribunal Appointments

Purpose

1. This paper seeks your agreement to progress the reappointment of four Waitangi Tribunal members whose warrants will expire in Haratua 2024.

Background

2. The Waitangi Tribunal (the Tribunal) is a permanent commission of inquiry. The Tribunal was established under section 4 of the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975 (the Act) to inquire into, and make recommendations on, acts and omissions of the Crown which were, or are, inconsistent with the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi.
3. Section 4 of the Act states that the Governor-General appoints members to the Waitangi Tribunal on the recommendation of the Minister of Māori Development after consultation with the Minister of Justice. Members may be appointed for a term specified by the Governor-General not exceeding three years.
4. The Tribunal comprises up to 20 members and the Chief Judge of the Māori Land Court is the Chairperson. The terms for four members on the Waitangi Tribunal are expiring in Haratua 2024 and a further 12 expiring in Hakihea 2024.

A full list of Tribunal members is attached as Appendix 1

5. The Act allows for members whose terms have expired to continue in office for the purpose of completing any proceedings heard by the Tribunal before the expiry of the member's term of office or the member's resignation.
6. Your role is to approve the appointments and progress to the Cabinet Appointments and Honours Committee (APH) then to Cabinet for approval. Following Cabinet approval, you will recommend the appointments to the Governor-General who appoints members and signs member warrants.

Comment

Upcoming appointments

7. In 2021, Dr Grant Phillipson, Dr Hana O'Regan, Kevin Prime and Derek Fox were appointed for three-year terms and their warrants expire on 24 Haratua 2024.
8. On 16 Huitanguru 2024, the Chairperson of the Waitangi Tribunal, Chief Judge Caren-Fox wrote to you on advising that all four members are available for reappointment.
9. Under Section 4 of the Act, where Tribunal members' warrants are due to expire, the Minister of Māori Development has the option of recommending that the Governor-General either reappoint members for another term or appoint new members.

10. The appointment process includes considering the suitability of persons for appointment to the Tribunal, Section 4(2A) requires you to have regard to the relationship between the two parties to the Treaty of Waitangi and to a candidate's person attributes and relevant knowledge and experience in matters likely to come before the Tribunal.
11. Tribunal members will come from all walks of life and are appointed for their expertise in the matters that are likely to come before them. The current Tribunal membership, including the four candidates, reflects both partners in the Treaty; the Crown and Māori. 13 of 20 Members identify as Māori and 12 of 20 identify as male.

We recommend the reappointment of members

12. All four members have indicated they are available for reappointment. A candidate information form for each member is attached.

Short Biographies

- a. Dr Grant Phillipson's professional involvement with the Tribunal began in 1993 as a commissioned researcher. In 1995, he was appointed research manager and, two years later, chief historian. He held that role until his appointment to the Tribunal in 2011. Dr Phillipson has written numerous research and historical reports commissioned by the Tribunal, the New Zealand Māori Congress – Crown Joint Working Party, and the Crown Forestry Rental Trust. As chief historian, Dr Phillipson was responsible for supervising the Tribunal's commissioned research programme and providing research and report writing advice to numerous Tribunal panels.

Dr Phillipson has published academic papers on questions relating to the church in nineteenth century New Zealand, Treaty history, the Tribunal, and Māori land. During his time on the Tribunal, he has sat on various claims including the New Zealand Māori Wardens claim, Ahuriri Mandate, the Whakatōhea Settlement Processes and Te Ture Whenua Māori claim.

- b. Dr Hana O'Regan (Ngāi Tahu) hold a Doctor in Philosophy from Auckland University of Technology awarded in 2017. She is a published author and composer and is recognised internationally for her work in indigenous language acquisition and revitalisation. A graduate of Panekiretanga o Te Reo Māori, Dr O'Regan is widely respected for her Māori language contribution, skills, and advocacy.

In 2016, Dr O'Regan was appointed General Manager, for Te Rūnanga o Ngāi Tahu. Prior to that she held two director positions at ARA Institute of Canterbury as the Kaiārahi – Director Māori and Pasifika, and the Director for the Student Services Division.

Dr O'Regan has also held positions on national boards, review panels and committees across the areas of education, Māori development, Treaty rights and policies, and health. She also serves as a member on Ngā Kaitūhono - the Māori Advisory Group to the NZQA Board and advisory member on Tōpuni Mātauranga - Mātauranga Iwi Leaders Group on the National Iwi Chairs Forum.

- c. Mr Kevin Prime (Ngāti Hine, Ngāti Whātua, Tainui and Welsh descent) was a commissioner with the Environment Court from 20023 to 2023, as well as being a beef farmer, forester, beekeeper, and conservationist. Mr Prime has worked with a variety of organisations in the profit and non-profit sectors in the areas of philanthropy, health, conservation, justice, Māori development, education, environment, forestry, farming, and sport.

In 2016, Mr Prime was recognised in the Queen's Birthday Honours list receiving an Officer of the New Zealand Order of Merit for his services to conservation and Māori. In 2023, he was made a Companion of the New Zealand Order of Merit for more than half a century of service to Māori, the environment and health. Amongst the many roles, honours and awards Mr Prime has received, he is one of the founding members of Ngā Whenua Rāhui, established in 1990 to protect Māori land using conservation covenants. He is also a past chairperson and current kaumātua of Foundation North.

- d. Mr Derek Fox (Ngāti Kahungunu and Ngāti Porou descent) has had a diverse career spanning journalism, broadcasting, local & national politics, and publishing. Mr Fox is a director and half owner in WOVEN Pacific Communications, a communications consultancy working in New Zealand and across the Pacific. Born and raised in Wairoa he became the Mayor of Wairoa from 1995 to 2001.

Mr Fox has been at the forefront of Māori broadcasting and media for more than 40 years having had a hand in most of the major Māori broadcasting initiatives – including the battle for and the development of Māori Television – serving as Chair for the first Māori Television Service board. He established the Wairoa Economic Development Taskforce which led to the Economic Tairāwhiti Development Taskforce.

13. We recommend you reappoint all four members. This will provide the Tribunal membership with consistency and will allow the members to continue their work already underway. These members have the necessary background and experience needed for the Tribunal and their reappointments are supported by the Chairperson of the Tribunal.

Risks

14. There is some risk in not reappointing the current members. They have the existing knowledge of hearings and are familiar with the work of the Tribunal. If they are not reappointed, they will only be able to continue the hearings or work they have underway. For any new work or hearings, the Tribunal Chairperson will need to reassign existing members with availability, if any, until new members are appointed.
15. Members whose terms are expired but not reappointed and remain working on existing hearings do not count towards the 20-person limit of the Tribunal.
16. By reappointing the four there is some risk that this does not introduce new members into the Tribunal. However, there are 12 more member terms expiring in Hakihea 2024 and is an opportunity to consider the overall composition of the Tribunal.

Consultation

17. You are required to consult with the Minister for Justice. We also recommend you consult with the Attorney General, Minister for Courts and the Minister for Māori Crown-Relations: Te Arawhiti. You may wish to consult with your coalition partners in accordance with the current requirements of the APH committee.

Next Steps

18. If you agree to reappoint the four members, you must undertake consultation with your Ministerial colleagues and coalition partners as required. A draft Cabinet paper reflecting the reappointments has been provided for consultation.

19. You are required to consult with the Minister of Justice Hon. Paul Goldsmith. We also recommend you consult with Minister for Courts Hon Nicole McKee and Attorney-General Hon Judith Collins. Letters to facilitate this consultation is provided as Appendix 2.
20. If you do not agree to reappoint these members, officials will consult with the Chairperson of the Tribunal and provide alternative names for consideration.

Recommended Action

21. It is recommended that you:

Tēnā Koe XXX

I write to advise of my intention to recommend to the Governor General the reappointment of four members of the Waitangi Tribunal.

The Waitangi Tribunal (the Tribunal) is a permanent commission of inquiry, established under section 4 of the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975 (the Act) to inquire into, and make recommendations on, acts and omissions of the Crown which were, or are, inconsistent with the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi.

The Tribunal comprises up to 20 members and the Chief Judge of the Māori Land Court is the Chairperson.

It is my intention to recommend the reappointment of Dr Grant Phillipson, Dr Hana O'Regan, Mr Kevin Prime and Mr Derek Fox to the Waitangi Tribunal for further term of three years from the date of appointment.

These four members were last appointed in 2021 and their reappointment has been supported by Chairperson of the Waitangi Tribunal, Chief Judge Caren Fox.

I consider all four members have the expertise and experience necessary to continue the valuable work of the Tribunal.

Candidate forms and a draft cabinet paper are attached for your consideration.

If you have any feedback or questions, please respond by XXXX. I intend to lodge these appointments for the APH committee on May 2nd.

Waitangi Tribunal appointments

Purpose

1. This briefing provides advice on the appointments of members to the Waitangi Tribunal (the Tribunal).
2. It also provides letters to colleagues seeking nominations for additional members for the Tribunal and a letter of response to the Chair of the Waitangi Tribunal (the Chair), Chief Judge Fox.

Executive Summary

3. In accordance with the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975 (the Act) the Minister for Māori Development recommends the appointment of Waitangi Tribunal members to the Governor-General.
4. The Waitangi Tribunal has a total of 20 members, of which sixteen members terms will expire either at the end of May 2024 or end of December 2024.
5. There is an obligation under the Act that you must consult with your Ministerial colleagues on the appointment and membership of the Tribunal.

Background

6. On 9 April 2024, we sought your agreement to reappoint the four members whose warrants will expire on 30 May 2024 (Refer: BP 48410). Following discussions with officials on 29 April 2024, you requested further nominations for consideration and advice on the process for appointments.
7. There are four members whose terms will expire in May 2024 and twelve whose terms will expire in December 2024. All four members expiring in May are available for reappointment and nine of the twelve expiring in December are available for reappointment. The other three members will retire once their term ends.
8. On 2 May 2024, the Chair of the Tribunal, Chief Judge Fox wrote to you confirming members available for appointment in December, suggesting new names for consideration and advising of those who will be retiring. She also asked for a response to her request to be part of the development of the Strategic Direction of the Tribunal (provided as Attachment One).
9. Chief Judge Fox confirmed her support for the reappointments of available members.

Appointments to the Waitangi Tribunal

The Minister for Māori Development seeks nominations

10. The Circular dated 25 March 2024 [CO (24) 2] provides guidance for Ministers and agencies on the consultation arrangements on government appointments.

11. It outlines that at an early stage in the process, Ministers should seek nominations from other parties for government appointments, directly with their own party and through other parties' respective Chiefs of Staff. A letter to seek nominations from your colleagues is provided as Attachment Two.
12. In line with this guidance, we advise that you seek nominations from coalition partners. CO (24) 2 advises that timely consultation generally means five working days.
13. We recommend you advise the Chair, Chief Judge Fox on your intentions to seek further names though consultation with your Ministerial colleagues. We recommend you wait until this consultation is completed before advising of your appointment intentions. The draft letter to the Chair of the Tribunal is provided as Attachment Three.

Consider appropriate appointees

14. In accordance with the Act, when considering suitable candidates to the Tribunal, you:
 - a. should consider the partnership between the two parties to the Treaty; and
 - b. shall have regard not only to a person's personal attributes but also to a person's knowledge of and experience in the different aspects of matters likely to come before the Tribunal.
15. Paragraph 13 means that members of the Tribunal should be balanced in terms of Māori and non-Māori.
16. The Chair provided names you may wish to consider towards maintaining this balance including s9(2)(a) s9(2)(ba)(i) These nominations will be included for your consideration.

Consultation with your colleagues

17. Once you have received nominations, you must consult with your colleagues on appointments. Given the focus of the government on the Treaty of Waitangi, it is important to work with your Ministerial colleagues when progressing these appointments. This consultation may provide you with more options. We also advise that you should consult with the Chair.
18. As noted in paragraph 12, consultation should be five working days.
19. We will prepare a letter of consultation for Ministerial colleagues and a draft APH paper.

December appointments

20. The process outlined above remains the same for the December appointments. However, this round may provide you an opportunity to identify potential nominations to appoint in December.

Risks and Issues

Reputational risk

21. Given recent media attention on the Tribunal, there is risk that any change to the Tribunal composition and any decision not to reappoint members, may be viewed negatively by the public and other key stakeholders.
22. The mitigation is that seeking nominations from your coalition partners provides you with a wider network and more robust candidates for consideration.

Relationship risk

s9(2)(g)(i)

Operational risk

24. Not appointing members by 30 May 2024 might impact the Tribunal's ability to take on new inquiries. To mitigate this risk, we recommend that the appointments are finalised before 30 May 2024 when the current members terms' end.

Next Steps

- 25. We recommend you send the letters to colleagues seeking further nominations for consideration. (Attachment Two) and send the letter of response to the Chair, Chief Judge Fox (Attachment Three),
- 26. We recommend you engage with the Chair on any new members you may wish to appoint and advise of your intentions regarding reappointment before 30 May 2024.
- 27. Following ministerial consultation, we will provide advice on candidates for appointment and the necessary APH documentation.

Recommended Action

It is recommended that you:

- 1. Agree to send letters of consultation to Ministerial colleagues seeking further names for consideration to the Waitangi Tribunal. Yes / No
- 2. Agree to send your response letter to the Chair of the Waitangi Tribunal, Chief Judge Fox Yes / No
- 3. Agree to advise the Chair of your appointment intentions before 30 May 2024. Yes / No

Attachment 2 – Letter for Ministerial Consultation Updated

Tēnā Koe XXX

As the Minister responsible for the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975 (the Act) my role includes recommending to the Governor General the appointment of members to the Waitangi Tribunal (the Tribunal).

Currently there are four Tribunal members whose terms expire on 30 May 2024, that are available for reappointment. This letter is seeking further names you may wish for me to consider for upcoming and future appointments to the Tribunal.

Waitangi Tribunal role

The Tribunal is a standing commission of inquiry, established to inquire into, and make recommendations on, acts and omissions of the Crown which were, or are, inconsistent with the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi.

The role of the Tribunal is set out in section 5 of the Act and includes:

- inquiring into and making recommendations on well-founded claims
- examining and reporting on proposed legislation, if it is referred to the Tribunal by the House of Representatives or a Minister of the Crown
- making recommendations or determinations about certain Crown forest land, railways land, state-owned enterprise land, and land transferred to educational institutions.
- In fulfilling this role, the Waitangi Tribunal has exclusive authority to determine the meaning and effect of the Treaty. It can decide on issues raised by the differences between the Māori and English texts of the Treaty.

Membership for the Waitangi Tribunal

The Tribunal is a specialist body that comprises up to 20 members, with the Chief Judge of the Māori Land Court as the Chairperson. Members are appointed for up to three years and may be reappointed.

Members of the Waitangi Tribunal come from all walks of life. When considering the composition of the Tribunal, I must have regard to the partnership between the two parties to the Treaty, a person's personal attributes, and also to a person's knowledge of and experience in the different aspects of matters likely to come before the Tribunal.

Tribunal members must evaluate large amounts of historical, traditional and legal evidence in the course of their work.

If you would like to recommend individuals for consideration as members of the Waitangi Tribunal, please provide contact details and candidate information to XXX@XXX.XX.XX. When nominating individuals, please ensure they are aware of your recommendation and confirm their availability for the role.

Tēnā koe e te Māreikura

Thank you for your letter dated 2nd Paengawhāwhā 2024.

I have received advice from Te Puni Kōkiri officials regarding the pending term expiry of four Waitangi Tribunal members, all of whom have indicated their availability for reappointment.

As the responsible Minister I have considered this advice and, in accordance with my responsibilities to Cabinet and colleagues, I must undertake consultation on all Waitangi Tribunal appointments.

I intend to consult with my Ministerial colleagues and seek additional names for consideration. Once completed I will formally advise you of my decisions and the timing for the process to appoint. I will also seek your feedback on any proposed new members.

This now means that the terms of those members available for reappointment will expire before the consultation is complete and I advise you must make the necessary arrangements during this period.

In accordance with Schedule 2 (1) of the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975, these members can continue in office for the purpose of completing any proceedings heard by the Tribunal before the expiry of the member's term of office.

I acknowledge the pending retirement in December of Mr Ron Crosby, Dr Robyn Anderson and Mr Herewini Te Koha and their service and contribution to the Tribunal. In particular, I would like to acknowledge the contribution of Dr Anderson and Mr Crosby who have been Tribunal members since 2004 and 2011 respectively.

Thank you for your invitation to attend the members meeting in July. My office will confirm my availability once formal invitation is received.

The composition of the Tribunal and the representation of both parties to the Treaty is an important consideration and I thank you for your recommendations of potential replacements.

I regret to advise that I am unable to participate in the review of the Tribunal's Strategic Direction. While I understand your request, the strategic direction review is an operational matter for the Tribunal, and it is not appropriate for a Minister to participate.

Waitangi Tribunal Appointments

Purpose

1. This paper outlines your options with respect to the appointment of up to four individuals to the Waitangi Tribunal (the Tribunal), following the expiry of the terms of four members in Haratua 2024. It seeks confirmation from you of the names of those individuals whose appointments you intend to progress, so that we can prepare supporting papers.

Background

2. The Waitangi Tribunal is a permanent Commission of Inquiry. The Tribunal was established under Section 4 of the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975 (the Act) to inquire into, and make recommendations on, acts and omissions of the Crown which were, or are, inconsistent with the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi.
3. Section 4 of the Act states that the Governor-General appoints members to the Tribunal on your recommendation, following your consultation with the Minister of Justice. Members may be appointed for a term specified by the Governor-General and not exceeding three years.
4. The Tribunal comprises up to 21 members, including the Chief Judge of the Māori Land Court, who is the Chairperson. A full list of current Tribunal members is provided as Attachment 1.
5. The Act allows for members whose terms have expired to continue in office for the purpose of completing any proceedings heard by the Tribunal before the expiry of the member's term of office, or the member's resignation.
6. The terms of the members of the Tribunal listed below expired in Haratua 2024, though all are continuing in office for the time being, under the provision outlined in paragraph 5 above.
 - a. Dr Grant Phillipson
 - b. Dr Hana O'Regan
 - c. Kevin Prime
 - d. Derek Fox.
7. On 31 Haratua you wrote to colleagues seeking nominations for appointments to the Tribunal and to Tribunal Chair advising of your intention to seek further names for consideration. You advised Chief Judge Fox that members with expired terms will be able remain on current work, in accordance with the Act.

Comment

8. As the Minister who recommends appointments to the Governor-General, you must ensure that the Tribunal has available within its membership the judgement, expertise and knowledge it needs to give effect to its role. Section 4(2A) of the Act requires you to have regard to 'the partnership between the two parties to the Treaty of Waitangi' and to a candidate's 'personal attributes and knowledge of and experience in the different aspects of matters likely to come before the Tribunal'.
9. It has been general practice for the maximum number of appointments allowable under the Act to be made. The Tribunal has therefore tended to operate with 21 members including the Chair, plus any members continuing in office under the provisions outlined in paragraph 5 above. Under the statute, however the minimum number of appointed members additional to the Chair is only two.
10. This means that you do have the option of not recommending new appointments at this time, although your discretion is limited by your need to be satisfied that the Tribunal has the membership necessary to undertake its functions. Note that although there is no statutory requirement that the membership is evenly split between Māori and non-Māori, general practice has been an approximate 50/50 split, reflecting the parties to the Treaty. Any sitting of the Tribunal does require the presence of at least one Māori member. 10 of the current 16 members are Māori. This does not include the four members whose terms expired in Haratua 2024.
11. It has also been practice, across government, to seek gender balance in appointments to statutory bodies. 9 of the current 16 members identify as male.
12. You will likely want to keep these considerations in mind as you make decisions now about the possible new appointees to the Tribunal, to a maximum of four. Note that your next opportunity to consider the composition of the Tribunal is imminent, as the terms of 12 members expire in Hakihea this year.
13. With respect to the current round, Te Puni Kōkiri has as requested established the availability of those individuals who have been nominated by your colleagues. Chief Judge Caren Fox has also advised that the four members whose terms recently expired are all available for reappointment.
14. Candidates who are not selected for these four more recent vacancies will be considered and presented as options in the next appointments in Hakihea.

Letter from Tribunal Chair received

15. On 14 Hereturikōkā Chief Judge Fox wrote to you requiring an update on your decisions and advised her intention to assign new work to members with pending terms.
16. There are 12 members with pending terms with nine available for reappointment. As with these appointments you may wish to seek further names for consideration, alongside those member with expiring terms.
17. Once you have made decisions regarding the current four vacancies we will provide a letter of response to Chief Judge, including your intentions for the December appointments.

Short Biographies of available candidates (More detail attached as Appendix 2)

- a) Philip Crump spent much of his professional career as a commercial lawyer, mostly based in the United Kingdom. Since returning to New Zealand, he has become the founding editor of ZB Plus. He has significant experience as a political commentator and journalist. Earlier, he studied at the University of Auckland where he achieved an LLB and BA in English Literature and Māori Studies. During his time at university, he was an editor-in-chief at the Auckland University Law Review in 1996.

s9(2)(a) s9(2)(ba)(i)

- c) Derek Fox (Ngāti Kahungunu and Ngāti Porou descent) has had a diverse career spanning journalism, broadcasting, local & national politics, and publishing. Mr Fox is a director and half owner in WOVEN Pacific Communications, a communications consultancy working in New Zealand and across the Pacific. Born and raised in Wairoa, he was the Mayor of Wairoa from 1995 to 2001. Member of Tribunal until May 2024.

s9(2)(a) s9(2)(ba)(i)

- g) Dr Hana O'Regan (Ngāi Tahu) holds a Doctor of Philosophy from Auckland University of Technology awarded in 2017 and Master of Arts with Distinctions in Māori Studies from University of Otago. A published author and composer she is recognised internationally for her work in indigenous language acquisition and revitalisation. A graduate of Panekiretanga o Te Reo Māori, Dr O'Regan is widely respected for her Māori language contribution, skills, and advocacy. Member of Tribunal until May 2024.

- h) Dr Grant Phillipson's professional involvement with the Tribunal began in 1993 as a commissioned researcher. In 1995, he was appointed research manager and, two years later, chief historian. He held that role until his appointment to the Tribunal in 2011. Dr Phillipson has authored numerous research and historical reports commissioned by the Tribunal, the New Zealand Māori Congress – Crown Joint Working Party, and the Crown Forestry Rental Trust. Member of Tribunal until May 2024.
- i) Richard Prebble CBE is a former member of the New Zealand Parliament and Minister of the Crown. Once a member of the Labour Party, he then joined the newly formed ACT party, and was party leader from 1996 to 2004. He graduated from the University of Auckland with a law and arts degree, majoring in history. He has practised as a lawyer in both New Zealand and Fiji. He is experienced in negotiating Treaty issues, and since leaving parliament has advised various Māori trusts, hapū and iwi on a variety of issues.
- j) Kevin Prime (Ngāti Hine, Ngāti Whātua, Tainui and Welsh descent) was a commissioner with the Environment Court from 2003 to 2023, as well as being a beef farmer, forester, beekeeper, and conservationist. Mr Prime has held governance roles within a variety of organisations in the profit and non-profit sectors in the areas of philanthropy, health, conservation, justice, Māori development, education, environment, forestry, farming, and

- l) Ken Williamson KStJ QSM CFInstD JP built Law Mooney Williamson Insurance Brokers alongside his partners into one of New Zealand's largest commercial insurance brokerages. Mr Williamson is a Fellow of the Insurance Brokers Association of NZ. He has given much of his life to St John's and other community service organisations. Mr Williamson continues to serve as a governor on a diverse range of not-for-profit boards including tertiary and secondary education, health, philanthropy, special needs, broadcasting, women's refuge, science, and local body sectors. He was awarded the QSM for services to the community and is a Distinguished Fellow of the Institute of Directors.

Risks

- 18. The key risks to all outlined appointments are delays in process including consultation requirements. Chief Judge Fox is aware of the potential delays and has been kept up to date with the appointment progress.
- 19. Changes to Waitangi Tribunal membership will need to be announced and will attract interest from public and media. Officials will work with your office on timing and content of announcements.

Next Steps

- 20. Following your decisions, a draft Cabinet paper will be provided to begin consultation with colleagues before APH committee.
- 21. You are required by legislation to consult with the Minister of Justice, Hon. Paul Goldsmith. We also recommend you consult with Chief Judge Fox, as Chair of the Tribunal.
- 22. You will need to consult with your coalition partners in accordance with the current requirements of the APH committee

Waitangi Tribunal Appointments

Purpose

1. This paper outlines your options with respect to the appointment of up to four individuals to the Waitangi Tribunal (the Tribunal), following the expiry of the terms of four members in Haratua 2024. It seeks confirmation from you of the names of those individuals whose appointments you intend to progress, so that we can prepare supporting papers.

Background

2. The Waitangi Tribunal is a permanent Commission of Inquiry. The Tribunal was established under Section 4 of the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975 (the Act) to inquire into, and make recommendations on, acts and omissions of the Crown which were, or are, inconsistent with the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi.
3. Section 4 of the Act states that the Governor-General appoints members to the Tribunal on your recommendation, following your consultation with the Minister of Justice. Members may be appointed for a term specified by the Governor-General and not exceeding three years.
4. The Tribunal comprises up to 21 members, including the Chief Judge of the Māori Land Court, who is the Chairperson. (A full list of current Tribunal members is provided as Attachment 1.)
5. The Act allows for members whose terms have expired to continue in office for the purpose of completing any proceedings heard by the Tribunal before the expiry of the member's term of office, or the member's resignation.
6. The terms of the members of the Tribunal listed below expired in Haratua 2024, though all are continuing in office for the time being, under the provision outlined in paragraph 5 above.
 - a. Dr Grant Phillipson
 - b. Dr Hana O'Regan
 - c. Kevin Prime
 - d. Derek Fox.
7. On 31 Haratua you wrote to your ministerial colleagues seeking nominations for appointments to the Tribunal. You also wrote to the Tribunal Chair advising of your intention to seek further names for consideration. You advised Chief Judge Fox that members with expired terms will be able remain on current work, in accordance with the Act.

Comment

8. As the Minister who recommends appointments to the Governor-General, you must ensure that the Tribunal has available within its membership the expertise and knowledge it needs to give effect to its role. Section 4(2A) of the Act requires you to have regard to 'the partnership between the two parties to the Treaty of Waitangi' and to a candidate's 'personal attributes and knowledge of and experience in the different aspects of matters likely to come before the Tribunal'.
9. It has been general practice for the maximum number of appointments allowable under the Act to be made. The Tribunal has therefore tended to operate with 21 members including the Chair, plus any members continuing in office under the provisions outlined in paragraph 5 above. Under the statute, however the minimum number of appointed members additional to the Chair is only two.
10. This means that you do have the option of not recommending new appointments at this time, although your discretion is limited by your need to be satisfied that the Tribunal has the membership necessary to undertake its functions. Note that although there is no statutory requirement that the membership be evenly split between Māori and non-Māori, general practice has been an approximate 50/50 split, reflecting the parties to the Treaty. Any sitting of the Tribunal does require the presence of at least one Māori member. 10 of the current 16 members are Māori. This does not include the four members whose terms expired in Haratua 2024.
11. It has also been practice, across government, to seek gender balance in appointments to statutory bodies. 9 of the current 16 members identify as male.
12. You will want to keep these considerations in mind as you make decisions now about the possible new appointees to the Tribunal, to a maximum of four. Note that your next opportunity to consider the composition of the Tribunal is imminent, as the terms of 12 members expire in Hakihea this year.
13. With respect to the current round, Te Puni Kōkiri has requested confirmation of the availability of those individuals who have been nominated by your colleagues. Chief Judge Caren Fox has also advised that the four members whose terms recently expired are all available for reappointment.
14. Candidates who are not selected for these four more recent vacancies will be considered and presented as options in the next round of appointments in Hakihea 2024.

Letter from Tribunal Chair received

15. On 14 Hereturikōkā Chief Judge Fox wrote to you requiring an update on your decisions and advised her intention to assign new work to members with pending terms.
16. There are 12 members with pending terms with nine available for reappointment. As with these appointments you may wish to seek further names for consideration, alongside those members with expiring terms.
17. Once you have made decisions regarding the current four vacancies we will provide a letter of response to Chief Judge, including your intentions for the December appointments.

18. Short Biographies of available candidates (More detail attached as Appendix 2)

- a. Philip Crump spent much of his professional career as a commercial lawyer, mostly based in the United Kingdom. Since returning to New Zealand, he has become the founding editor of ZB Plus. - g. Dr Hana O'Regan (Ngāi Tahu) holds a Doctor of Philosophy from Auckland University of Technology awarded in 2017 and Master of Arts with Distinctions in Māori Studies from University of Otago. A published author and composer she is recognised internationally for her work in indigenous language acquisition and revitalisation. A graduate of Panekiretanga o Te Reo Māori, Dr O'Regan is widely respected for her Māori language contribution, skills, and advocacy. She is a Member of Tribunal until May 2024.
- h. Dr Grant Phillipson his professional involvement with the Tribunal began in 1993 as a commissioned researcher. In 1995, he was appointed research manager and, two years later, chief historian. He held that role until his appointment to the Tribunal in 2011. Dr Phillipson has authored numerous research and historical reports commissioned by the Tribunal, the New Zealand Māori Congress – Crown Joint Working Party, and the Crown Forestry Rental Trust. He is a Member of Tribunal until May 2024.
- i. Richard Prebble CBE is a former member of the New Zealand Parliament and Minister of the Crown. Once a member of the Labour Party, he then joined the newly formed ACT party and was party leader from 1996 to 2004. Mr Prebble graduated from the University of Auckland with a law and arts degree, majoring in history. He has practised as a lawyer in both New Zealand and Fiji. Mr Prebble is experienced in negotiating Treaty issues, and since leaving parliament has advised various Māori trusts, hapū and iwi on a variety of issues
- j. Kevin Prime (Ngāti Hine, Ngāti Whātua, Tainui and Welsh descent) was a commissioner with the Environment Court from 2003 to 2023, as well as being a beef farmer, forester, beekeeper, and conservationist. Mr Prime has held governance roles within a variety of organisations in the profit and non-profit sectors in the areas of philanthropy, health, conservation, justice, Māori development, education, environment, forestry, farming, and

- i. Ken Williamson KStJ QSM CFInstD JP built Law Mooney Williamson Insurance Brokers alongside his partners into one of New Zealand's largest commercial insurance brokerages. Mr Williamson is a Fellow of the Insurance Brokers Association of NZ. He has given much of his life to St John's and other community service organisations. Mr Williamson continues to serve as a governor on a diverse range of not-for-profit boards including tertiary and secondary education, health, philanthropy, special needs, broadcasting, women's refuge, science, and local body sectors. He was awarded the QSM for services to the community and is a Distinguished Fellow of the Institute of Directors.

Risks

19. The key risks to all outlined appointments are delays in process including consultation requirements. Chief Judge Fox is aware of the potential delays and has been kept up to date with the appointment progress.
20. Changes to Waitangi Tribunal membership will need to be announced and will attract interest from public and media. Officials will work with your office on timing and content of announcements.

Next Steps

21. Following your decisions, a draft Cabinet paper will be provided to begin consultation with your colleagues before presenting the paper at Cabinet Appointments and Honours Committee (APH).
22. You are required by legislation to consult with the Minister of Justice, Hon. Paul Goldsmith. We also recommend you consult with Chief Judge Fox, as Chair of the Tribunal.
23. You will need to consult with your coalition partners in accordance with the current requirements of the APH committee

Recommended Action

24. It is recommended that you:

Waitangi Tribunal Appointments

Purpose

1. This paper:
 - a. outlines your role and responsibilities with regards to appointment to the Waitangi Tribunal under the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975;
 - b. seeks your preferred approach for the upcoming appointment (or reappointment) of up to 13 members to the Waitangi Tribunal;
 - c. subject to your approval of option 2 or 3, seeks your agreement to recommend the reappointment of up to nine Tribunal members; and
 - d. notes that officials are available to discuss with you these options, or any combination of these options, for Waitangi Tribunal appointments.

Background

Your role and responsibilities under the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975

2. The Waitangi Tribunal (the Tribunal) is a permanent commission of inquiry. The Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975 (the Act) established the Tribunal to inquire into, and make recommendations on, acts and omissions of the Crown which were, or are, inconsistent with the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi.
3. Under the Act:
 - a. the Governor-General appoints Tribunal members on the recommendation of the Minister for Māori Development after consultation with the Minister of Justice (section 4(2)(b));
 - b. every Tribunal member holds office for a term specified by the Governor-General, that does not exceed three years and, upon expiration of their term, members can be reappointed in accordance with sections 4(2)(b) (nothing in the Act prevents terms from being shorter);
 - c. the Minister for Māori Development shall have regard to the relationship between the two parties to the Treaty of Waitangi and to a candidate's personal attributes and relevant knowledge and experience in matters likely to come before the Tribunal (section 4(2A)); and
 - d. in addition to the Chairperson (the current chairperson is also the Chief Judge of the Māori Land Court), the Tribunal shall consist "of not less than 2 other members and not more than 20 other members" (section 4(2)(b)).

Current membership of the Tribunal

4. A list of current members is attached as Appendix 1. The warrant of four Tribunal members expired in Hune 2024 and we are in the final stages of making two appointments and one reappointment for these vacancies. As a result, there is room currently to appoint one Tribunal member.
5. Meanwhile, the terms of 12 Tribunal members will expire on 14 Tihema 2024. On 16 Pēpuere 2024, the Chairperson of the Tribunal, Chief Judge Caren Fox, wrote to you advising that nine of the 12 members with terms expiring in Tihema 2024 are available for reappointment. The biography of these nine members is provided as Appendix 2.

6. The Act allows for members (continuing members) whose terms have expired to continue in office for the purpose of completing any proceedings heard by the Tribunal before the expiry of the member's term of office, or the member's resignation. The Chairperson of the Tribunal, however, cannot assign continuing members to a new inquiry.
7. Including most recent appointments, the term of seven members will continue beyond Tihema 2024. If you choose to make appointments to replace those members with terms expiring in Tihema 2024 and not available to be reappointed, there will be 11 members, with current terms available to be assigned to new inquiries. Continuing members with expired terms will be able to continue on existing work.
8. Continuing members do not count towards the 20-person limit on the Tribunal. This explains why the Tribunal currently has more than 20 members and continuing members combined.

Appointment process

Best practice for appointment process

11. The Act does not include specific requirement, other than section 4(2A), on the suitability of persons for appointment to the Tribunal. Te Kawa Mataaho guidance for appointments to Crown entity and Government boards is not applicable to a commission of inquiry like the Tribunal, however, it provides best practice advice for a robust and transparent appointment process. Key elements that are applicable to a Tribunal appointment process include:

a. confirm the roles and responsibilities of the Tribunal, especially in light of the reviews currently under way;

s9(2)(g)(i)

- c. develop a long list of candidates;
- d. initiate engagement with Cabinet Ministers and coalition partners;
- e. assess potential candidates against the competency framework;
- f. test the availability of potential candidates;
- g. go through the Cabinet Appointments and Honours Committee (APH) process.

s9(2)(g)(i)

13. Out of scope elements of the skills matrix might be applicable to other appointment process including the Tribunal.

14. Your role in the appointment process is to consider and make decisions in relation to:

- a. the approach to address the unfilled position and the 12 members with expiring warrants (covered in the paper);
- b. the resulting long-list and a proposed short-list of potential appointees; and
- c. progressing your decisions through the Appointments and Honours Committee (APH), and to forward APH's recommendations to Cabinet for approval.

15. After Cabinet approves the appointments, Te Puni Kōkiri will provide you with the necessary appointment instruments for you to make appointment recommendations to the Governor-General.

Proposed approach for upcoming appointments

Appointment process options

16. Given the work currently underway relating to the Tribunal and the need to fill a relatively large number of vacancies in a timely manner to enable the Tribunal to conduct its current functions, this paper outlines three different approaches for your consideration. All three options provide for developing a competency-based framework for Tribunal appointments that may be informed by the reviews currently underway.

Te Tautuhi ō Rongo analysis

24. This paper focusses on the appointment or reappointment of Tribunal members, which is an internal Crown process led by Ministers of the Crown and the Governor-General, in consultation with the Chairperson of the Tribunal. The appointment process is not undertaken in partnership with tangata whenua or iwi.
25. Section 4(2A) of the Act, does require the Minister for Māori Development to have regard to the relationship between the two parties to the Treaty of Waitangi and to a candidate's personal attributes and relevant knowledge and experience in matters likely to come before the Tribunal. This section of the Act will be central when developing a competency-based framework.

Next Steps

s9(2)(g)(i)

27. s9(2)(g)(i) [redacted] We will provide you with a follow-up paper outlining timeframes and detailing the process in full. We will also provide you with a draft Cabinet paper and supporting documents to consult with your Ministerial colleagues and coalition partners, with a view to seeking APH approval no later than 4 TThema 2024.
28. Officials are also available to discuss these options, or any combination of these options for Waitangi Tribunal appointments.

Recommended Action

29. It is recommended that you:

1. Note that you have the opportunity to make 13 appointments (or reappointments) to the Waitangi Tribunal:
 - a. there is one unfilled position currently on the Waitangi Tribunal, and
 - b. the warrants of 12 members of the Waitangi Tribunal are expiring on 14 TThema 2024;
2. note that nine of the 12 members are available for reappointment;
3. note that when the warrant of a Tribunal member expires, they can continue to work on existing inquiries but not be assigned to new ones;

Appendix 2: Biography of Tribunal members available for reappointment

Professor Rawinia Higgins (Ngai Tūhoe) is the Deputy Vice-Chancellor Māori at Te Herenga Waka - Victoria University of Wellington. Professor Higgins is a Board member of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand, and the current Chair and Commissioner of Te Taura Whiri i te Reo Māori - the Māori Language Commission. Professor Higgins is the first woman to be appointed to this position. She was elected as a Pacific Region representative on the Global Taskforce for the UNESCO International Decade of Indigenous Languages. Professor Higgins has been appointed to a number of governance and advisory board roles for government, Māori, and iwi. Her research expertise is Māori language revitalisation and, more specifically, language planning and policy and she was instrumental in shaping the current Māori language legislation and policy framework.

Tom Roa (Ngāti Maniapoto, Waikato Tainui) is a Professor in the Faculty of Māori and Indigenous Studies at the University of Waikato. He is an expert in translation between te reo Māori and English and the oral and written history of Waikato-Tainui, Ngāti Maniapoto, and the Kīngitanga. He has researched and contributed to a wide range of publications on the Māori classificatory regime for flora and fauna and traditional ecological knowledge, the theory and practice of translating from and into te reo Māori, Māori men's health, and Māori military history. Professor Roa has served for many years in Te Kauhanganui, the Waikato-Tainui parliament, including as its chairperson. He has also been a member and chairperson of Te Arataura, the Waikato-Tainui executive board, and is a Justice of the Peace. He was appointed to the Tribunal in 2016.

Dr Linda Tuhiwai Smith CNZM (Ngāti Awa, Ngāti Porou) is a Distinguished Professor at Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangī. She is from Ngāti Awa, Ngāti Porou, and Tūhourangi. Distinguished Professor Smith is known internationally for her work on decolonising research methodologies, Indigenous education, and kaupapa Māori. She was the founding Co-Director of Ngā Pae o Te Māramatanga - the Māori Centre of Research Excellence and has held several senior academic roles at the University of Auckland and Waikato University. She has served on the Health Research Council, the Marsden Fund Council, the Royal Society of New Zealand Council, and is currently Deputy Chair of Council of Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangī. .

Tania Simpson (Tainui, Ngāpuhi, Ngāi Tahu) is a director of Auckland International Airport, Meridian Energy, and Tainui Group Holdings. She is Chair of the Sustainable Seas National Science Challenge, Deputy Chair of Waitangi National Trust, and a member of the governance group for the Deep South National Science Challenge. She holds a Master of Mātauranga Māori from Te Wānanga o Raukawa, is an Accredited Fellow with the Institute of Directors, and was awarded the rank of Commander in the Order of the Taniwha by King Tūheitia and rank of Dame Commander in the Order of St Lazarus. She has had a career in public policy and governance.

Dr Monty Soutar (Ngāti Porou, Ngāti Awa, Ngāi Tai, Ngāti Kahungunu) is a professional historian, currently working on a historical novel series called Kawai. He has worked widely with iwi and Māori communities, in particular while writing Ngā Tama Toa (David Bateman, 2008), which told the story of C Company of 28 (Māori) Battalion in the Second World War and Whitiki! (David Bateman, 2019), which focused on Māori participation in the First World War. He has been a teacher, soldier, university lecturer, iwi rūnanga chief executive and senior historian with the Ministry for Culture and Heritage. He and has held a number of appointments on national advisory boards, including the Archives NZ Council, the Guardians of the Alexander Turnbull Library and the First World War Centenary Panel. Dr Soutar was appointed to the Tribunal in 2002.

Professor Sir Pou Temara (Ngāi Tūhoe) is a professor of Māori Philosophy at Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi. He is a recognised authority on Māori customary practice and whaikōrero, having taught at Waikato University as a Professor of Reo and Tikanga and Victoria University as a senior lecturer and later as Tohunga. He was a director of Te Panekiretanga o Te Reo, the Institute of Excellence in the Māori Language, where he taught and researched whaikōrero, karanga, and tikanga. As a member of the Tūhoe Waikaremoana Māori Trust Board, Professor Temara made several submissions during the Tribunal's Te Urewera hearings. He has experience in dispute resolution, mediating between the iwi of Taranaki during their claims to the Tribunal. He is widely credited with playing a crucial role to the survival of Te Reo Māori, and is regarded as a leader, mentor, and inspiration to people across Aotearoa.

Dr Ruakere Hond (Taranaki, Te Āti Awa) is a longstanding advocate of te reo Māori revitalisation and a key supporter of the Parihaka community. He was instrumental in working to achieve reconciliation between that community and the Crown, and he has held several leadership roles in Māori language organisations, including Te Reo o Taranaki, Te Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi, and Te Ātaarangi. He has served two terms as a member of Te Taura Whiri i te Reo Māori and is a past board member of Te Mātāwai. In 2013, Dr Hond completed a doctorate in public health, with a focus on Māori language revitalisation, community development approaches, and intergenerationally sustainable health outcomes. He is currently helping lead an Ātaarangi approach within the Ministry of Education initiative Te Ahu o Te Reo Māori in Taranaki, Whanganui, and Manawatū, which supports teachers to use reo Māori with students in their education setting. Dr Ruakere Hond was appointed to the Tribunal in 2018.

Kim Ngarimu (Ngāti Porou) has an extensive public service career dating back to the early 1990s. After leaving Te Puni Kōkiri in 1999, she worked in the office of the Auditor-General as a sector manager and co-directed her management and public policy consulting company, serving in 2004 as acting director of the Waitangi Tribunal. Between 2007 and 2013, she held the position of deputy secretary policy at Te Puni Kōkiri, and in 2012 she served as acting chief executive of the Ministry of Women. She is currently self-employed as a consultant and a professional governor, serving on a number of boards, including the Medical Council of New Zealand, Evolution Healthcare, and Te Pūkenga. Ms Ngarimu was appointed to the Tribunal in 2018.

Ms Prue Kapua is the principal of Tamatekapua Law and has an extensive background in resource management and the Treaty sector. She has supported whānau, hapū, and iwi claimants in several Waitangi Tribunal inquiries. She was a member of the Refugee Status Appeals Authority, Deputy Chair of the Medical Practitioners Disciplinary Tribunal, and a director of First Health NZ Ltd (a Southern Cross NZ Ltd subsidiary). In 2000, the Minister of Health appointed Ms Kapua to represent the interests of Māori women in the Gisborne Cervical Cancer Inquiry. She also advised the Ministry of Health on its Treaty policy in respect of a national screening programme. She has been a member of the Ministry of Health's National Kaitiaki Group and an external specialist adviser on legal aid funding for Waitangi Tribunal claims. She is currently the co-Chair of Oranga Tamariki Māori Design Group and Chair of the Interim Te Rōpū on Family Violence, Sexual Violence, and Violence within Whanau. She is the current president of the Māori Women's Welfare League and a trustee of Māori Women's Development Inc. Ms Kapua was appointed to the Tribunal in 2018.

Waitangi Tribunal appointments – up to 13 members in Hakihea 2024

Purpose

1. This briefing provides a long list of candidates for up to 13 unfilled positions on the Waitangi Tribunal for appointment for a term of three years. This briefing follows earlier advice Te Puni Kōkiri provided you on your preferred approach to upcoming appointments (or reappointments) to the Waitangi Tribunal (TPK 71454 refers), and feedback from you on 4 Whiringa-ā-rangi 2024.

Background

2. The terms of twelve member of the Waitangi Tribunal (the Tribunal) will expire on 14 Hakihea 2024. Further, one position on the Tribunal is currently vacant. That means you can recommend to the Governor-General up to 13 candidates for appointment to the Tribunal. We understand your preference is to recommend 13 candidates for appointment to three-year terms.
3. The Table overpage provides a list of all available candidates and their fields of expertise relevant to the role of Tribunal member. Te Puni Kōkiri recommends you indicate your appointing decisions in the table.

Proactively released by the Minister for Māori Development

Your role and responsibilities under the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975

4. The Waitangi Tribunal (the Tribunal) is a permanent commission of inquiry. The Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975 (the Act) established the Tribunal to inquire into, and make recommendations on, acts and omissions of the Crown which were, or are, inconsistent with the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi.
5. Under the Act:
 - a. the Governor-General appoints Tribunal members on the recommendation of the Minister for Māori Development after consultation with the Minister of Justice (section 4(2)(b));
 - b. every Tribunal member holds office for a term specified by the Governor-General, that does not exceed three years and, upon expiration of their term, members can be reappointed in accordance with sections 4(2)(b);
 - c. the Minister for Māori Development shall have regard to the relationship between the two parties to the Treaty of Waitangi and to a candidate's personal attributes and relevant knowledge and experience in matters likely to come before the Tribunal (section 4(2A)); and
 - d. in addition to the Chairperson (the current chairperson is also the Chief Judge of the Māori Land Court), the Tribunal shall consist "of not less than 2 other members and not more than 20 other members" (section 4(2)(b)).

Current membership of the Tribunal

6. Appendix 1 lists current members of the Tribunal.

Tribunal composition after 14 Hakihea 2024

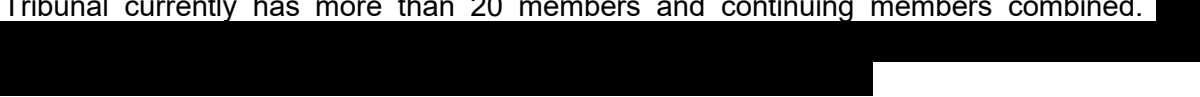

7. On 14 Hakihea 2024 the terms of 12 Tribunal members will expire. By letter dated 15 Huitanguru 2024 the Chairperson of the Tribunal, Chief Judge Caren Fox, wrote to you advising that nine of the current members were available for reappointment, and three were retiring.
8. Following the expiry of terms on 14 Hakihea 2024, the Waitangi Tribunal will comprise seven members with current terms and up to 13 positions available for appointment. The 12 members with expired terms could of course continue work on existing inquiries as continuing members. The Chairperson of the Tribunal could not, however, assign continuing members to a new inquiry.
9. Of the seven members of the Tribunal following the expiration of terms on 14 Hakihea 2024, one member (excluding the Chairperson) identifies as Māori, and one member identifies as female.
10. Continuing members do not count towards the 20-person limit on the Tribunal. Hence the Tribunal currently has more than 20 members and continuing members combined.

11. The following table outlines those members with current terms post 14 Hakihea 2024 and those who, without appointment will work on inquiries as continuing members of the Tribunal:

12. We note that although there is no express statutory requirement that the membership be evenly split between Māori and non-Māori, general practice has been an approximate 50/50 split, reflecting the parties to the Treaty. Any sitting of the Tribunal does require the presence of at least one Māori member (Schedule 2, Clause 5(6)(c)). 11 of the current 19 members identify as Māori.

13. Te Puni Kōkiri also would emphasise considering the gender balance in appointments to the Tribunal. Currently 12 of the current 19 members identify as male.

Appointment Process

14. The Act requires that in considering the suitability of persons for appointment to the Tribunal you shall have regard to (see section 4(2A)):

- a. the partnership between the two parties to the Treaty; and
 - b. the personal attributes of the person, and the person's knowledge of and experience in the different aspects of matters likely to come before the Tribunal.
15. A generalised overview of the Waitangi Tribunal appointments process is attached at Appendix 2.
16. Key elements that are applicable to a Tribunal appointment process include:
- a. engage early with the Chairperson of the Tribunal to identify the profiles, skills and experience required collectively for Tribunal members;
 - b. develop a long list of candidates;
 - c. initiate engagement with Cabinet Ministers and coalition partners;
 - d. test the availability of potential candidates; and
 - e. go through the Cabinet Appointments and Honours Committee (APH) process.

Skills to consider for candidates for appointment

17. In addition to the statutory criteria to which you must have regard when recommending candidates for appointment to the Tribunal (in section 4(2A) of the Act), we also provide below a set of skills and attributes that Tribunal members could bring. We understand that a similar set of skills and attributes has assisted with previous appointments to the Tribunal. We have categorised the candidates for your consideration in this briefing according to the skills and attributes below.

Candidates for appointment

18. We have provided a long list of candidates for your consideration at Table 1. There are 17 candidates for consideration. Te Puni Kōkiri has contacted the candidates listed and confirmed their availability to be considered for appointment.
19. You also seek suggested candidates from your Ministerial colleagues. If any additional candidates come from Ministerial colleagues Te Puni Kōkiri will contact the candidates and confirm their availability to be considered for appointment. After that we can update this briefing with any additional candidates' names.
20. A full list of candidate biographies is attached as Appendix 3.

Timing of appointments

21. Recommendations for appointments to the Tribunal are considered at APH following ministerial consultation and confirmed at Cabinet. You must then recommend the appointments to the Governor-General.
22. Consultation for all APH cabinet papers is a minimum of five days. The Act also requires that you specifically consult with the Minister of Justice (section 4(2)(b)). Te Puni Kōkiri recommends you consult with the Chairperson of the Tribunal, Chief Judge Fox, and follow any APH and coalition agreements consultation requirements.
23. If the Governor-General approves to your recommended appointments, she will sign the required appointing instruments or warrants. This stage of the process can take up to two weeks. Acceptance from appointees is required before the appointment process is complete and announcements can be made.
24. We would recommend you take your Waitangi Tribunal Appointments Cabinet paper to the APH committee meeting scheduled for either 10 Hakihea 2024 or 17 Hakihea 2024. The House is scheduled to rise for the year on 19 Hakihea 2024 and there are no Cabinet or Committee meetings after this date. Therefore, the appointment process will not be completed until early 2025.
25. The 2025 Sitting Calendar has not been confirmed so APH dates beyond 17 Hakihea 2024 are unknown. It is likely the first APH committee will be held in early Huitanguru 2025 when regular Cabinet schedules (and House sittings) resume.

Next Steps

34. Once you have agreed on up to 13 candidates you wish to recommend as members of the Tribunal, Te Puni Kōkiri will provide the relevant candidate information required for APH. Your office, on your behalf, can then begin consultation with the Chairperson of the Waitangi Tribunal and your Ministerial colleagues ahead of APH committee meeting.
35. To meet the proposed timeframes in this briefing, Te Puni Kōkiri would need the names of any additional candidates you wish to consider by 20 Whiringa-ā-rangi 2024 to finalise your draft Cabinet paper for Ministerial consultation to meet the suggested timeframes.
36. In the interim we recommend you advise the Chairperson of the Tribunal, Chief Judge Fox, of the anticipated appointment timeline (which could mean that the appointment process is not completed before 12 Tribunal members' terms expire on 14 Hakihea 2024). We will provide you with a draft letter. Te Puni Kōkiri can also liaise with Chief Judge Fox on your behalf as required.

Te Tautuhi ō Rongo analysis

37. This paper focusses on the appointment or reappointment of Tribunal members, which is an internal Crown process led by Ministers of the Crown and the Governor-General, in consultation with the Chairperson of the Tribunal. The appointment process is not undertaken in partnership with tangata whenua or iwi.
38. Section 4(2A) of the Act requires the Minister for Māori Development to have regard to the relationship between the two parties to the Treaty of Waitangi and to a candidate's personal attributes and relevant knowledge and experience in matters likely to come before the Tribunal.

Recommended Action

39. It is recommended that you:

1. note that you have the opportunity to make up to 13 appointments to the Waitangi Tribunal because:
 - a. there is one unfilled position currently on the Waitangi Tribunal; and
 - b. the warrants of 12 members of the Waitangi Tribunal are expiring on 14 Hakihea 2024.
2. note Te Puni Kōkiri has provided you with a long list of candidates to consider for recommending for appointment following feedback from you on 4 Whiringa-ā-rangi 2024;
3. note that following feedback from you we understand that your preference is to recommend 13 candidates for appointment to three-year terms;

4. agree to indicate your preferred candidates for appointment at Table 1 Yes / No
5. agree to notify the Chairperson of the Waitangi Tribunal that the appointment process will not be completed until early 2025 – if yes Te Puni Kōkiri will supply a letter for you to send; Yes / No
6. request te Puni Kōkiri provide further names for consideration. Yes / No

Waitangi Tribunal appointments – confirmation of preferred candidates and draft APH Cabinet paper

Purpose

1. This briefing provides you with a revised list of preferred candidates for your confirmation before progressing to the Cabinet Appointments and Honours Committee (APH) stage of the appointments process. It also seeks your approval to the draft Cabinet paper Waitangi Tribunal Appointments: December 2024 for ministerial consultation.

Candidates for appointment

2. This briefing follows earlier advice Te Puni Kōkiri provided you on your preferred approach to upcoming appointments (or reappointments) to the Waitangi Tribunal (TPK 71454 and TPK 71566 refers).
3. On 13 Whiringa-ā-rangi 2024 your office provided Te Puni Kōkiri with a list of candidates you wish to progress to the next stage of the appointment process. This list included nominations from your ministerial colleagues. Subsequently we discussed nominations with you on 18 Whiringa-ā-rangi 2024 and your office supplied further candidate names to Te Puni Kōkiri. Te Puni Kōkiri has contacted candidates and confirmed their availability to be considered for appointment.
4. Of the candidates proposed all have confirmed their availability to be considered for appointment except s9(2)(a) s9(2)(ba)(i)
[REDACTED]
5. This briefing paper features:
 - a. Table 1 overpage provides a list of all suggested candidates and their fields of expertise relevant to the role of Waitangi Tribunal member. You should confirm your recommended appointments in the table before progressing to the Ministerial consultation stage of the appointments process;
 - b. Appendix 1 addresses your role and responsibilities under the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975 (Act) in relation to appointments to the Waitangi Tribunal, the appointment process, and skills to consider when appointing candidates;
 - c. Appendix 2 provides a full list of candidate biographies;
 - d. Appendix 3 provides the Waitangi Tribunal membership;
 - e. Appendix 4 provides the draft Cabinet paper Waitangi Tribunal: Appointments December 2024; and
 - f. Appendix 5 provides the draft letter to the Chairperson of the Waitangi Tribunal.

Draft Cabinet paper for APH

6. We are seeking your approval to the draft Cabinet paper Waitangi Tribunal Appointments December 2024 (see Appendix 4) for ministerial consultation. This version of the draft Cabinet paper includes all candidates, however, only 13 of those candidates will need to feature in the final version.
7. Once you have approved the Cabinet paper, your office, on your behalf, can then begin consultation with your Ministerial colleagues ahead of APH committee meeting. You may also choose to consult the Chairperson of the Waitangi Tribunal on your proposed appointments. We have attached a draft letter if you agree to send a letter to Chief Judge Fox (Attachment 5).

Tribunal composition after 14 Hakihea 2024

8. The terms of twelve members of the Waitangi Tribunal will expire on 14 Hakihea 2024. Further, one position on the Tribunal is currently vacant. That means you can recommend to the Governor-General up to 13 candidates for appointment to the Tribunal. We understand your preference is to recommend 13 candidates for appointment to three-year terms.
9. Following the expiry of terms on 14 Hakihea 2024, and without any further appointments, the Waitangi Tribunal will comprise seven members with current terms. Of those seven members of the Tribunal one member (excluding the Chairperson) identifies as Māori, and one member identifies as female.
10. Continuing members do not count towards the 20-person limit on the Tribunal. Hence the Tribunal currently has more than 20 members and continuing members combined. s9(2)(g)(i)
11. Appendix 3 outlines those members with current terms post Hakihea 14 2024 and those who, without appointment will work on inquiries as continuing members of the Tribunal.
12. We note that although there is no express statutory requirement that the membership be evenly split between Māori and non-Māori, general practice has emerged been an approximate 50/50 split, reflecting the parties to the Treaty. Any sitting of the Tribunal does require the presence of at least one Māori member (Schedule 2, Clause 5(6)(c) of the Act). Eleven of the current 19 members identify as Māori.
13. Te Puni Kōkiri also would emphasise considering the gender balance in appointments to the Tribunal. Currently 8 of the current 19 members identify as male.

Timing of appointments

14. Recommendations for appointments to the Tribunal are considered at APH following ministerial consultation and confirmed at Cabinet. You then recommend the appointments to the Governor-General.
15. Consultation for all APH cabinet papers requires a minimum of five days. The Act also requires that you specifically consult with the Minister of Justice (section 4(2)(b)). Te Puni Kōkiri recommends you consult with the Chairperson of the Waitangi Tribunal, Chief Judge Fox, and follow any APH and coalition agreements consultation requirements.

16. If the Governor-General approves your recommended appointments, she will sign the required appointing instruments or warrants. This stage of the process can take up two weeks. Acceptance from appointees is required before the appointment process is complete and announcements can be made.
17. We would recommend you take your Waitangi Tribunal Appointments Cabinet paper to the APH meeting scheduled for either 10 Hakihea 2024 or 17 Hakihea 2024. The House is scheduled to rise for the year on 19 Hakihea 2024 and there are no Cabinet or Committee meetings after this date. Therefore, while most stages of the appointment process could be completed in 2024, final appointments will not take effect until early 2025.
18. The 2025 Sitting Calendar has not been confirmed so APH dates beyond 17 Hakihea 2024 are unknown. It is likely the first APH committee will be held in early Huitanguru 2025 when regular Cabinet schedules (and House sittings) resume.

Next Steps

19. Once you have confirmed your 13 preferred candidates and approved the attached draft Cabinet paper you can begin consultation with your ministerial colleagues and the Chairperson of the Waitangi Tribunal.

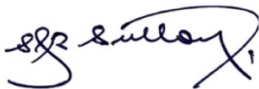

Te Tautuhi ō Rongo analysis

20. This paper focusses on the appointment or reappointment of Waitangi Tribunal members, which is an internal Crown process led by Ministers of the Crown and the Governor-General, in consultation with the Chairperson of the Tribunal. The appointment process is not undertaken in partnership with tangata whenua or iwi.
21. Section 4(2A) of the Act requires the Minister for Māori Development to have regard to the relationship between the two parties to the Treaty of Waitangi and to a candidate's personal attributes and relevant knowledge and experience in matters likely to come before the Tribunal.

Recommended Action

22. It is recommended that you:

1. note that you have the opportunity to make up to 13 appointments to the Waitangi Tribunal because:
 - c) there is one unfilled position currently on the Waitangi Tribunal; and
 - d) the warrants of 12 members of the Waitangi Tribunal will expire on 14 Hakihea 2024;
2. note we have received feedback from you on 13 and 18 Whiringa-ā-rangi 2024 indicating candidates to progress through to the next stage of the appointment process;
3. note we have provided you with a revised list of preferred candidates for your confirmation before progressing to the Cabinet Appointments and Honours committee stage of the appointments process;
4. confirm your preferred candidates for appointment at Table 1; Yes / No
5. approve the draft Cabinet paper Waitangi Tribunal Appointments: December 2024 for ministerial consultation; and Yes / No
6. sign the letter to Chairperson for the Waitangi Tribunal notifying list of preferred candidates for appointment in Hakihea 2024. Yes / No

Your role and responsibilities under the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975

1. The Waitangi Tribunal (the Tribunal) is a permanent commission of inquiry. The Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975 (the Act) established the Tribunal to inquire into, and make recommendations on, acts and omissions of the Crown which were, or are, inconsistent with the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi.
2. Under the Act:
 - a. the Governor-General appoints Tribunal members on the recommendation of the Minister for Māori Development after consultation with the Minister of Justice (section 4(2)(b));
 - b. every Tribunal member holds office for a term specified by the Governor-General, that does not exceed three years and, upon expiration of their term, members can be reappointed in accordance with sections 4(2)(b);
 - c. You, the Minister for Māori Development shall have regard to the relationship between the two parties to the Treaty of Waitangi and to a candidate's personal attributes, relevant knowledge and experience in matters likely to come before the Tribunal (section 4(2A)); and
 - d. in addition to the Chairperson (the current chairperson is also the Chief Judge of the Māori Land Court), the Tribunal shall consist "of not less than 2 other members and not more than 20 other members" (section 4(2)(b)).

Appointment Process

3. The Act requires that in considering the suitability of persons for appointment to the Tribunal you shall have regard to (see section 4(2A)):
 - a. the partnership between the two parties to the Treaty; and
 - b. the personal attributes of the person, and the person's knowledge of and experience in the different aspects of matters likely to come before the Tribunal.
4. Key elements that are applicable to a Tribunal appointment process include:
 - a. engage early with the Chairperson of the Tribunal to identify the profiles, skills and experience required collectively for Tribunal members;
 - b. develop a long list of candidates;
 - c. initiate engagement with Cabinet Ministers and coalition partners;
 - d. test the availability of potential candidates; and
 - e. go through the Cabinet Appointments and Honours Committee (APH) process.

Skills to consider for appointing candidates

5. In addition to the statutory criteria to which you must have regard when recommending candidates for appointment to the Tribunal (in section 4(2A) of the Act), we also provide below a set of skills and attributes that Tribunal members could bring. We understand that a similar set of skills and attributes has assisted with previous appointments to the Tribunal. We have categorised the candidates for your consideration in this briefing according to the skills and attributes below.

Waitangi Tribunal Appointments

I am pleased to advise you of my intention to recommend the following persons for reappoint and new appoint to the Waitangi Tribunal, pursuant to section 4 of the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975:

- a. reappointments of Dr Hana O'Regan, Derek Fox, Prue Kapua, Kim Ngarimu and Dr Ruakere Hond to the Waitangi Tribunal for a term of three years commencing the date of appointment; and
- b. appointments of Tipene Chrisp, Philip Crump, Vanessa Eparaima, Rex Hale, Kingi Kiriona, Tafaomalo Leilani Tuala-Warren, s9(2)(a) s9(2)(ba)(i) to the Waitangi Tribunal for a three-year term commencing on the date of appointment.

In considering the suitability of a person for appointment to the Waitangi Tribunal, I am required under section 4(2A) of the Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975 to have regard to the partnership between the two parties to the Treaty and have done so in this appointment process.

I have also considered candidates' personal attributes, and their knowledge of and experience in the different aspects of matters likely to come before the Waitangi Tribunal during the next three years. I am satisfied that these appointments meet the above requirements.

I intend to progress these appointments and reappointments through to the Cabinet Appointment and Honours Committee in December 2024 and make recommendations to the Governor-General before the end of the year.

Appreciate your ongoing discretion as the appointment process proceeds.

Waitangi Tribunal Appointments: Final decisions

Purpose

1. This briefing seeks your approval of the final list of candidates for appointment to the Waitangi Tribunal (Tribunal) following ministerial consultation and to the final Cabinet paper Waitangi Tribunal Appointments: December 2024.

Candidates for appointment

2. This briefing follows earlier advice from Te Puni Kōkiri on your preferred approach to upcoming appointments (or reappointments) to the Tribunal [TPK 71454 and TPK 71566 refer].
3. You confirmed your 13 preferred candidates for appointment to the Waitangi Tribunal in TPK 71607. You have since completed ministerial consultation on those candidates and your office has confirmed you have also consulted with the Chairperson of the Tribunal, Chief Judge Caren Fox.

s9(2)(g)(i)

5. Table One below seeks confirmation of the final candidates. It is recommended you confirm up to three further candidates for appointment to have a full complement of 13 preferred candidates.
6. The Table also sets out the 10 remaining preferred candidates.

Final Cabinet paper for approval

7. The Cabinet Paper: Waitangi Tribunal: Appointments: December 2024 is attached (Appendix) for approval.

s9(2)(g)(i)

9. The paper recommends the Cabinet Appointments and Honours Committee (APH) note that the proposed appointments are subject to the satisfactory completion of background checks, and that you will report to the APH should any issues arise.
10. Due to the number of appointments being recommended, the candidates for appointment are attached to the Cabinet paper as the Appendix and will be informed by your decisions at Table One.

Te Tautuhi ō Rongo analysis

11. This paper focusses on the appointment or reappointment of Tribunal members, which is an internal Crown process led by Ministers of the Crown and the Governor-General, in consultation with the Chairperson of the Tribunal. The appointment process is not undertaken in partnership with tangata whenua or iwi.
12. Section 4(2A) of the Act requires the Minister for Māori Development to have regard to the relationship between the two parties to the Treaty of Waitangi and to a candidate's personal attributes and relevant knowledge and experience in matters likely to come before the Tribunal.

Next Steps

13. Following decisions sought in this paper your office will lodge the attached Cabinet paper for consideration at the APH meeting scheduled for 10 Hakihea 2024. Table Two below outlines the next steps for these appointments.
14. Te Puni Kōkiri will also undertake the remaining background checks and if any conflicts of interest arise you will be advised.
