CASE STUDY (FAMILY STORY)

Family of eight including six young children living in over-crowded conditions and suffering financial and health issues. Whānau Ora provided support so the family could pay for the mother's surgery. Being the sole income earner this enabled her to return to work. Navigators helped the children get their regular health and dental checks. The father also lost a significant amount of weight that boosted his confidence and was able to secure a full-time job.
