The number of Māori households has increased. By 2023, the number of Māori aged 15 to 64 years will grow by 16%. The number of Māori households has increased. The highest rate of growth was for one-person households. By 2023, the number of Māori aged 65+ will increase more than 1.5 times. The number of Māori aged 65+ years will increase by 10%. From 2006 to 2013, the number of Māori aged 15 to 64 years has grown by 6%. The number of Māori aged 65+ years will increase by 7%. The number of Māori receiving Jobseeker Associate has increased. Nearly six in ten working age (15+) Māori are employed. The large majority of tamariki Māori have participated in early childhood education. The number of Māori aged 65+ will increase more than 1.5 times. The number of Māori aged 65+ years will increase by 7%. The number of Māori receiving Jobseeker Associate has increased. More Māori authorities and other Māori businesses are operating in Waikato-Waikarei. Over one-quarter of Māori can speak te reo Māori. This has declined slightly.

Notes: 1. Government’s Better Public Service (BPS) target was to increase participation in early childhood education to 98% by 2015.

The Māori population will exceed 200,000 by 2023. The number of Māori households has increased. By 2023, the number of Māori aged 15 to 64 years will grow by 16%. The number of Māori households has increased. The highest rate of growth was for one-person households. By 2023, the number of Māori aged 65+ will increase more than 1.5 times. The number of Māori aged 65+ years will increase by 10%. From 2006 to 2013, the number of Māori aged 15 to 64 years has grown by 6%. The number of Māori aged 65+ years will increase by 7%. The number of Māori receiving Jobseeker Associate has increased. Nearly six in ten working age (15+) Māori are employed. The large majority of tamariki Māori have participated in early childhood education. The number of Māori aged 65+ will increase more than 1.5 times. The number of Māori aged 65+ years will increase by 7%. The number of Māori receiving Jobseeker Associate has increased. Most tamaki Māori are immunised.

By 2023, the number of Māori aged 15 to 64 years will grow by 16%. The number of Māori households has increased. The highest rate of growth was for one-person households. By 2023, the number of Māori aged 65+ will increase more than 1.5 times. The number of Māori aged 65+ years will increase by 10%. From 2006 to 2013, the number of Māori aged 15 to 64 years has grown by 6%. The number of Māori aged 65+ years will increase by 7%. The number of Māori receiving Jobseeker Associate has increased. Nearly six in ten working age (15+) Māori are employed. The large majority of tamariki Māori have participated in early childhood education. The number of Māori aged 65+ will increase more than 1.5 times. The number of Māori aged 65+ years will increase by 7%. The number of Māori receiving Jobseeker Associate has increased. More Māori authorities and other Māori businesses are operating in Waikato-Waikarei. Over one-quarter of Māori can speak te reo Māori. This has declined slightly.

Notes: 1. Government’s Better Public Service (BPS) target was to increase participation in early childhood education to 98% by 2015.